

Jeffrey Gross, DDS, FAGD – Biography

Jeffrey Gross, DDS, FAGD is an Ohio licensed general dentist with over 30 years of experience, practicing general and cosmetic dentistry. He is on the staff of the Case Western Reserve School of Dental Medicine in Cleveland, Ohio.

As a 1975 graduate of Case Western Reserve University School of Dentistry, Dr. Gross was the only member of his class to graduate after completing a unique accelerated program in both undergraduate and graduate school. Upon graduation he opened his dental practice in Eastlake, Ohio. In the mid-nineties, Dr. Gross became a Fellow of the Academy of General Dentistry. He has also completed over 300 hours of surgical training in Implant Dentistry. This makes him one of a select few general dentists who perform this type of surgery in the United States.

In an effort to provide care to his patients in the most comprehensive fashion, his education has expanded to include a variety of specialty procedures, including root canal therapy, periodontal (gum) procedures and wisdom tooth removal. He also offers Express Braces™, laser dentistry, teeth whitening and other cosmetic procedures. Dr. Gross is a strong believer in short term treatments and patient comfort, so in most cases, a complete smile makeover can be accomplished in only a few convenient visits.

Dr. Gross, in association with other practitioners, created The Healthy Smile, a multi-facility dental practice group offering general and cosmetic dental procedures.

A frequent guest on the lecture circuit, Dr. Gross has lectured extensively since the 1980's. He has also been widely published with both articles and a text on dental procedures. Dr. Gross teaches part-time in the graduate periodontic program at the Case Western Reserve School of Dental Medicine.

Dr. Gross resides in Cleveland Heights, Ohio with his wife. He has four grown children and ten grandchildren.
